

Help Protect Your Bottom Line

Minimize Tax, Financial and IT Security Risks

March 3

Loyola University Graduate Center, Columbia

Learn to Manage Risk, Fraud, and Cyber Security

Learn strategies to help your business protect its bottom line by attending the Business Development Council's next educational program on Wednesday, March 3, from 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. at the Loyola University Graduate Center in Columbia.

Our expert panel will address how your business can manage and minimize corporate risk from a tax, financial and IT security perspective. Topics for discussion include fraud and internal controls, tax obligations and "forgotten" taxes like payroll and unemployment, nexus and audit issues, Cyber security and network controls. Learn more about this critical topic and discuss what you learn with likeminded business people during this interactive seminar.
